HELPFUL TIPS:

Learn more about your choices by:
1) going on a housing tour or info session
2) reviewing floorplans + photos on the website
3) asking your fellow Columbia on the Facebook page

RISING SOPHOMORE TIP: We advise you to form a group with one to seven other students and to register for Suite Selection. This gives you the option to try for a suite or a single if you have a great lottery number, but avoid having to pick into a blind double if you don’t.

SUITE SELECTION TIP: Avoid stress and don’t wait until the last minute to register your group. The system requires 12 hours to process your group leader can approve and finalize.

OPEN HOUSING PILOT PROGRAM:
Open Housing is available for the 2011-2012 academic year and refers to an arrangement whereby two students, regardless of sex, gender, or gender identity, are permitted to share a room in specific Columbia residence halls. For info regarding eligibility, participation and locations, please visit:
